COMMENTS: Candidate faxed in his waiver request and he states that he never received a notice to remind him that he had an upcoming report due. He states that when he spoke to staff at Ethics he was informed that the notice was sent to an old address. He states that the Annual report and his correspondence with our office should have reflected his new address. He said in his defense he has tried diligently to be prompt during his tenure as an elected official to file his reports timely. He said this one slipped through the cracks and would appreciate consideration of a waiver or reduced amount in the late fees assessed.

Re: Annual Campaign Finance Report

Dear Mrs. Horn:

Once again I am asking consideration for late fees that will be assessed due to me being late filing my annual campaign finance report. I know this is probably of no consequence but I never received a notice from the La. Board of Ethics to remind me that I have an upcoming report that is due. In addition, the lady that I spoke with in your office informed me that the notice was sent to P. O. Box 822 which is my old address. The last annual report and my correspondence with your office should have reflected my new address of 108 Hwy. 892.

I believe that I am 15 days late on my filing. In my defense, I have tried diligently to be prompt during my tenure as an elected official to file these reports timely. This one slipped through the cracks for that I apologize for any inconvenience. I appreciate your consideration and hopes of a waiver or reduced amount in late fees assessed.

Thanks in advance for you kind consideration.

Sincerely,

Rickey A. Jones
